

Day 1: Normalize the Lie

When Sin Becomes Self-Expression

If you wanted to destroy a generation without firing a single shot... you'd just redefine the words. Make sin sound like freedom.

You're living in a time when sin isn't just tolerated—it's celebrated.

Lying gets called "living your truth."
Sexual confusion is labeled "finding yourself."
And rebellion against God? That's "being authentic."

But none of this is accidental.
There's a strategy behind it.

Satan is working behind the scenes—shaping culture, twisting language, and blinding hearts—because he knows the truth will lead you to freedom.

Genesis 3:4 (AMP):
"You will not certainly die!" the serpent said to the woman.

That was the first lie. And it's still being used today—just in new packaging.

Isaiah 5:20 (AMP):
"Woe (judgment is coming) to those who call evil good, and good evil..."

The enemy doesn't force you into chains. He convinces you to love them.

But this isn't what you were made for.

Jesus came not just to break the lies—but to lead you into truth.
And truth isn't just a concept—it's a Person. His name is Jesus.

If you've felt confused ... if right and wrong have started to blur ... that's not weakness —that's spiritual warfare.

But you don't have to stay stuck in deception.

You were created to walk in truth. You were made to know the One who sets you free.

Go to Jesus. He will show you what real freedom looks like.

📖 DEVOTIONAL: "When Sin Becomes Self-Expression"

SCRIPTURE:

Genesis 3:4 (AMP) — “You will not certainly die!” the serpent said to the woman.

Isaiah 5:20 (AMP) — “Woe (judgment is coming) to those who call evil good, and good evil...”

DEVOTIONAL REFLECTION:

Culture has become a tool the enemy uses to blur the lines between truth and lies. It's not random—it's spiritual.

The goal? To keep you from recognizing your need for Jesus.
To keep you numb to sin.
To keep you lost—while thinking you're enlightened.

It happened in the garden. It's happening now.

What Satan can't destroy outright, he'll try to redefine.
What he can't bind with fear, he'll disguise as freedom.

But you weren't made to live in confusion.
You were made to walk in light.

Jesus didn't come to shame you. He came to rescue you—from the lies that feel normal but are keeping you far from God.

When you choose His truth, you don't lose your identity—you finally discover it.

If you downloaded this 10-day series PDF ... go to Day 1 and say this short declaration and prayer with me.

DECLARATION:

I won't fall for the enemy's lies. I belong to Jesus. I choose truth over deception, and freedom over fake promises. I was made to walk in light.

PRAYER:

Jesus, open my eyes. Show me where I've believed something that isn't from You. Help me let go of anything that's keeping me from the truth. I want what You say is good. I want to follow You.

CHALLENGE:

Ask the Holy Spirit: "Have I accepted anything as normal that's actually pulling me away from You?"

Write down what He shows you—and invite Jesus to lead you back into truth.
