

Welcome to the Holy Rebel: The Worth He Died For

Day 5 – Your Worth Is a Weapon

Your worth isn't a burden to carry—it's a weapon to wield.

What if your worth isn't just about how you feel inside—but about the power God's placed in you?

You've carried wounds and doubts, but now it's time to take hold of your true identity as a holy rebel—and use your worth in Christ to make a difference.

Your worth is more than a feeling—it's a calling.

The blood Jesus shed didn't just save you—it equipped you.

When you understand your worth in Christ, you realize that the enemy's lies were always meant to keep you small and silent.

But God calls you to step into boldness.

To walk in freedom, peace, and joy.

To use your story, scars, and strength as a weapon against darkness.

Psalm 44:3 (AMP) says:

*“For our fathers did not possess the land [of Canaan] by their own sword, Nor did their own arm save them, But Your right hand and Your arm and the light of Your presence, Because You favored and delighted in them.”*

Your worth is part of God's mighty hand working through you to change lives and shift atmospheres.

This is your awakening.

Your calling.

Your battle cry.

“But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory [as conquerors] through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Reflection:

How can you use your worth to serve others and advance God’s kingdom?

What would it look like to wield your identity in Christ as a weapon against fear, shame, and defeat?

Ask God to show you your role in His battle plan.
