

Welcome to the Sanctified Skeptic: Finding Faith Through the Facts

Day 5 – Faith That Changes Everything

Faith isn't about ignoring facts—it's about stepping into the story they point to.

You're exploring the evidence.

You're asking the hard questions.

Now here's a bigger question:

What if all the facts are leading you to a Person, not just a conclusion?

The goal of faith isn't to “feel spiritual” or just believe something nice.

Faith in Jesus changes everything—because He's not just true, He's alive.

Faith begins with trust, but it moves into transformation.

It shifts your identity, your purpose, your eternity.

2 Corinthians 5:17 (AMP) says:

“If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature [reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]; the old things have passed away. Behold, new things have come.”

All the evidence you'll find—Jesus' existence, fulfilled prophecy, the harmony of science and Scripture, the power of miracles—

It all points here:

Jesus isn't asking you to believe in belief. He's asking you to believe in Him.

John 1:12 says:

“But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave the right [the authority, the privilege] to become children of God...”

This is your moment.

You don't need to have every question answered.

You just need to know that truth isn't an idea.

It's a Person—and His name is Jesus.

I'd like to take a second to ask you to

Devotional Scriptures (AMP):

— 2 Corinthians 5:17 (AMP)

“If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature [reborn and renewed by the Holy Spirit]; the old things have passed away. Behold, new things have come.”

— John 1:12 (AMP)

“But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave the right [the authority, the privilege] to become children of God...”

Reflection:

Are you ready to start stepping into truth?

What would it mean for your life to move from facts about Jesus to faith in Jesus?

If you’ve downloaded the devotional PDF for today, go to Day 5 and say this simple declaration and prayer with me.

Declaration & Prayer:

I believe Jesus is the truth I’ve been searching for (John 14:6)

I am ready to receive Him and become a child of God (John 1:12)

My past no longer defines me—Christ does (2 Corinthians 5:17)

I welcome the transformation that faith in Jesus brings (Romans 12:2)

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner in need of Your grace. I repent of my sins and confess openly with my lips that Jesus is my Lord and Savior. I believe in my heart that He died and rose from the grave for my sins. Lord Jesus, I invite You into my life and ask for the Holy Spirit to dwell in my heart; to be my teacher, my counselor, my comforter, and my helper in all areas of my life. May Your will be done in my life. In Jesus’ name, I pray. Amen.

If you prayed this prayer of salvation, it is a very good first step in beginning your walk with Jesus. Relationships take effort and communication. Keep the communication channel open with Jesus so you can start building your relationship and hear what He has in store for you.

Challenge:

Today, take one bold step:

👉 If you’ve never invited Jesus into your life, pray today’s prayer out loud.

👉 If you have, but want to go deeper, share your story or question with someone you trust—contact me through GodDesign.org. Truth isn’t the end of the journey. It’s the beginning.

Additional Scripture:

—John 14:6 (AMP) “Jesus said to him, “I am the [only] Way [to God] and the [real] Truth and the [real] Life; no one comes to the Father but through Me.”

—Romans 12:2 (AMP) “And do not be conformed to this world [any longer with its superficial values and customs], but be [\[a\]](#)transformed and progressively changed [as you mature spiritually] by the renewing of your mind [focusing on godly values and ethical attitudes], so that you may prove [for yourselves] what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect [in His plan and purpose for you].”
